Study abroad

Why could it be worthwhile to go abroad?

1. Extend your specific qualification
2. Deepen your language competence
3. Develop your personality
4. Gain intercultural experience
5. Push your career perspectives
6. ... have a nice time!

Going Abroad

- Where to go, what kind of exchange?
- Language?
- Duration, perfect timeslot?

- Funding?
- Entry/visa requirements, vaccination recommendations, insurances?
- Language tests?

- Which courses, which project?
- Recognition towards your degree?
- Study plan after your return?

Going Abroad

Formal process:

1. Get information on cooperating institutions via
 - <http://www.geo.uni-bremen.de/> → studies → international exchange
 - Or join the information talk 😊
 - Or look independently for a suitable university/place
2. General inquiries regarding an exchange stay are answered by the International Office UB (<http://www.uni-bremen.de/de/studium/starten-studieren/studium-international/>):
!Jour Fixe: please find the dates on this homepage!
3. Make an appointment at S & P Büro (office for study affairs and career perspectives)
4. Apply

Going Abroad

What kind of stay:

1. Study exchange mobility
 - Semester/ year abroad
 - Summer schools
 - Specific course offer (field trips, projects)

2. Internship or professional training
 - With a company
 - Research project
 - Field work

3. Language courses

Study Abroad

Free mover:

- wherever you want and where you are accepted
- needs more effort (and costs) by yourself
- asking for appropriate funding/scholarship by yourself
- get some help from IO and the S&P-Büro GEO
- recognition of your study record has to be discussed with your home university in advance

Study Abroad

Scholarships and funding

DAAD ERASMUS: mobility grant (300 – 500 € a month), no tuition fees

DAAD PROMOS: mobility grant (300 – 500 € a month)

Auslands-BAföG:

worldwide, higher rate for stays abroad, covers travel costs + some tuition fees up to 4500,- €

„+ 1 year“, apply 6 months in advance, country-specific agencies

Scholarship (apply well in advance!):

Study Abroad

Exchange programs (easier, cheaper):

- find a partner university of your Department
- join an exchange program like ERASMUS, PROMOS
- benefit from structured steps over the exchange period, supervision at the host university and a part-funding
- recognition of your study record is agreed and assured
